REPORT

West Hongkew Station,

Date January 1, 1931.

Subject (in full) Birthday invitations.

Made by _____ and _____ Forwarded by Inspector Walker

Sir,

Reference attached.

I beg to report I have interviewed C.D.S. 121 Wong Sien Chang, he states "No invitation was sent to any member of the public by him, in all 37 invitations were sent to different Station detectives whom he has known for many years, as regards the allegations made on the invitation cards, he denies all knowledge of same. He assumed that some of the detectives who received them sent them to the (D.C. C & S.B.) as a case of spite in order to get him into trouble."

The above C.D.S. applied for permission to hold the party which was approved by D.D. Divisions. Application attached.

I am, Sir,

Your obedient servant,

Chen

Inspector in charge.

Shanghai, December 22, 1930.
To D.C. (Divisions).

Passed to you. These things are getting more prevalent now. I suggest that some of those detectives should be punished for distributing invitations without permission first being obtained.

Translation of the sentences written at the back of an invitation.

(Undated).

D.C. (C. & S.B.).

Sir,

Formerly we depended for our living upon the "Hua Wei" lottery which has been rigidly suppressed. Now invitations have been received from one of your C.D.S.s (C.D.S. 121 Wong Se Chong attached to West Hongkew) demanding us to give him a gift of $10.00 each, a sum too heavy for us to bear. It is therefore requested that you will be kind enough to have the amount reduced to $3 or $4 which will be within our ability to arrange.

Chen.

Translation of the sentences written at the back of another invitation.

(Undated).

Wong Se Chong demands from every opium smoking den a sum of $6, a sum too heavy for us, poor mortals, to bear. It is therefore requested that you will be kind enough to devise some means of relief for us.

Translation of the invitation.

December 21 being the 70th birthday of my mother, a feast is prepared for your and your family's attendance.

Time &)
Place) 11 a.m. to 10 p.m. at the Hsu Sing Ler Restaurant at Canton Road and at No. 715 Gordon Road, my residence.

Wong Se Chong.
